News 3/7/67

—UPI Photo

QUESTIONED — J. B. Dauenhauer, bookkeeper of the International Trade Mart in New Orleans, and former assistant to Clay Shaw who has been charged with conspiracy in the assassination of President Kennedy, was questioned yesterday by aides of District Attorney Jim Garrison. His attorney said his client had been co-operative but had not been able to help the probers. The American Civil Liberties Union has charged Mr. Garrison with "serious breaches of professional ethics."